Confessions: By appointment and before and after the Saturday Masses at Molesey & Hersham.

WELCOME TO MASS Readings and prayers are found in the Parish Missals for Pentecost, Year B

My dear Parishioners, dear friends

On the day of Pentecost Peter stands up and preaches the Good News of Jesus Christ with extraordinary confidence and vigour. It is strange to think that the fisherman from Galilee who presents as both strong and impetuous and then weak and a wreck, should speak with such boldness. The answer for those of faith is that the Prince of the Apostles is filled with the Holy Spirit. And just as the Spirit of God brooded on the face of the waters at the beginning of Creation, so now the Spirit is the gift of God available for all people.

A famous commentator on the Acts of the Apostles said that the first time the message of Jesus Christ is proclaimed the emphasis is that it is for everyone. Obvious of course for those of us who have followed the preaching of the apostles and the life of the early Church through this great book of Acts, but how often we fail to communicate that truth. The Spirit of God, given to us sacramentally in Confirmation, the Spirit of God poured into our hearts each time we pray and call on the Holy Name of Jesus is a constant reminder that the faith we profess is for everyone and not simply a private and privileged affair.

Let us allow the Holy Spirit on this Pentecost Sunday to broaden our world and expand our hearts. May we see what is around us with a new perspective inspired by Divine Love and may we take again real delight in the gift of the Holy Spirit, our Helper and our Guide.

This weekend I make a trip to Edinburgh where I've been invited to preach for the Masses of Pentecost in the new Edinburgh Oratory in formation at the beautiful Catholic church in the Cowgate, in the centre of the city. It will be a great joy to see our friend, Fr Gerard Hatton, who has joined this community close to the life of St Philip Neri. Fr Gerard, you'll remember, was with us after his serious illness. He fondly remembers his time with us, not least because he made an extraordinary recovery, surrounded by the prayers and affection of our communities.

In Molesey and Hersham we welcome Fr Patrick Duffy from the St Francis Xavier Mission Society who will preach the annual mission appeal amongst us and take a collection for the work of the fathers. I know you will be generous in your welcome and your support.

With my prayers and affectionate good wishes
Fr Richard
