WELCOME TO MASS *Readings and

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year

My dear Parishioners, dear friends,

The month of October is devoted to the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Pope St John Paul II often spoke and wrote about the Rosary. Here is an extract where he simply talks about the beads themselves:

The traditional aid used for the recitation of the Rosary is the set of beads. At the most superficial level, the beads often become a simple counting mechanism to mark the succession of Hail Marys. Yet they can also take on a symbolism which can give added depth to contemplation.

Here the first thing to note is the way the beads converge upon the Crucifix, which both opens and closes the unfolding sequence of prayer. The life and prayer of believers is centred upon Christ. Everything begins from him, everything leads towards him, everything, through him, in the Holy Spirit, attains to the Father.

As a counting mechanism, marking the progress of the prayer, the beads evoke the unending path of contemplation and of Christian perfection. Blessed Bartolo Longo saw them also as a “chain” which links us to God. A chain, yes, but a sweet chain; for sweet indeed is the bond to God who is also our Father. A “filial” chain which puts us in tune with Mary, the “handmaid of the Lord” (Lk 1:38) and, most of all, with Christ himself, who, though he was in the form of God, made himself a “servant” out of love for us (Phil 2:7). A fine way to expand the symbolism of the beads is to let them remind us of our many relationships, of the bond of communion and fraternity which unites us all in Christ.

Bishop Richard will visit St Barnabas to celebrate the Solemn Mass this Sunday 6 October at 11am.

With my prayers and affectionate good wishes Fr
Richard

Act of Spiritual Communion

This prayer is said when it is not possible for us to receive Holy Communion. If you are watching a live stream Mass, you might like to say the prayer as the priest receives Holy Communion.

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

For those who are suffering

O God, who willed that our infirmities be borne by your Only Begotten Son to show the value of human suffering, listen in kindness to our prayers for our brothers and sisters who are sick; grant that all who are oppressed by pain, distress or other afflictions may know that they are chosen among those proclaimed blessed and are united to Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen

Merciful God, come to the help of your people. Be our shelter in this time of peril and strengthen the bonds of our community. Bring healing to all who suffer the ravages of disease and assist those whose skill and art can put an end to this affliction. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

FAMILY FAST DAY 4 October 2024

(The annual Harvest Appeal by CAFOD ; UK charity number 1160384; <https://cafod.org.uk>)

CAFOD is the Catholic Agency for Overseas Development. It is an international development charity who has the potential to reach everyone. They campaign for global justice, so that every woman, man and child can live a full and dignified life. They offer practical help, regardless of religion or culture. CAFOD is the official aid agency of the Catholic Church in England and Wales and part of Caritas International. It works with its partners in 165 countries and it is part of the Disaster Emergency Committee (DEC).

TODAY

Right now, CAFOD urgently needs your support to enable their continued response to communities that face poverty, injustice, emergency crisis (war, earthquakes, etc) and climate change.

Our parishes at All Saints and St Barnabas are very generous with their prayers and donations in supporting CAFOD.

THANK YOU.

WHAT TO DO – Please give up a meal or some treats and donate that money to CAFOD. All charities are receiving less financial support due to cost of living and other challenges. As CAFOD works with local partners, £1.00 goes a long way, but over 80p is used for response to war, political conflicts and emergencies such as earthquakes and Covid. so less is available for the projects to enable people become independent of financial aid.

HOW TO DONATE - The envelope – FAMILY FAST DAY gives details .

Please take one.

- Online /QR code – details on envelope
- Cash/ cheque – put in envelope and return to All Saints or St Barnabas
- Contactless card system at All Saints (pay to CAFOD)
- Regular donation online
- Give Aid your donation – If you are an UK taxpayer please complete the section on the envelope or online.

FUNDING for PROJECTS – YOU continue to provide these achievements .

A HUGE THANK YOU.

Democratic Republic of The Congo (DRC) A huge population of 106 million , spread over a large land mass, Adolescent boys choose between fighting in the civil war or leaving to find work. CAFOD with its local partner, Cajed, finances projects to support health, schools and training schemes to teach trades. (Please note the Catholic Church is the only agency able to work in some areas.)

1. Example - Daniel had a poor education and needed work. He attended a training centre in Goma which teaches trades in Carpentry, mushroom farming and tailoring. Daniel is a carpenter with his own workshop and a future, making doors, and simple tables and chairs.

Sudan Crisis appeal – At the start of the appeal, millions were forced to leave their homes and at least 25 million needed emergency help . CAFOD immediately gave over £1 million and currently are working with over 400,000 South Sudanese refugees to resettle them into communities with large numbers of internally displaced people, for example in White Nile. Projects involve sanitation, hygiene, providing household items, such as cooking utensils and blankets. Local partners also address livelihoods, including giving cash vouchers.

General work in Caribbean, Central America, Latin America and Brazil

- tackle poverty both in urban and rural areas
- create more peaceful and just societies
- protect the environment
- support women, young people and indigenous groups to have more say in political and economic life
- respond to emergencies such as hurricanes, floods, earthquakes and armed conflict.

Praise to you, Father for your creation of this Earth

Praise to you Jesus for showing us how to have neighbourly love

Praise to you, Holy Spirit – we ask for your courage and strength to help us make all things new.

May God continue to bless the work of all charities such as CAFOD. May we be able to support them in our prayers and donations. AMEN
