Holy Family, Jesus, Mary & Joseph, Year C*

Dear Parishioners, dear friends,

God bless us all on these beautiful Christmas Days.

I would like to express, on behalf of us all, those who made the churches so beautiful and warm and welcoming, who assisted musically and liturgically. I would like to express, on my own behalf, those who were so generous to me personally; your cards, gifts, good wishes and generosity are sustaining and deeply encouraging. Thank you.

I wish you all a happy new year of Our Lord 2025.

May the Lord bless us and keep us and let His face shine upon us.

Next Sunday we look forward to the Solemnity of the Epiphany of Our Lord.
The journey of the magi to the Christ child is a beautiful and mysterious feast of His manifestation to all nations.

Pope Benedict preached these words, some time ago, on this Feast:

*The wise men followed the star. Through the language of creation, they discovered the God of history. To be sure – the language of creation alone is not enough. Only God's word, which we encounter in sacred Scripture, was able to mark out their path definitively.
Creation and Scripture, reason and faith, must come together, so as to lead us forward to the living God. There has been much discussion over what kind of star it was that the wise men were following. Some suggest a planetary constellation, or a supernova, that is to say one of those stars that is initially quite weak, in which an inner explosion releases a brilliant light for a certain time, or a comet, etc. This debate we may leave to the experts. The great star, the true supernova that leads us on, is Christ himself. He is as it were the explosion of God's love, which causes the great white light of his heart to shine upon the world.*

With my prayers and affectionate good wishes Fr Richard may know that they are chosen*

Christ in his suffering for the salvation of the world.*

Joseph is a retired engineer who travelled the world extensively. He is now an international speaker and author. Joseph had a very powerful spiritual conversion in 1993 which changed His life dramatically. He now travels the world speaking about Jesus and Our Blessed Mother Mary. His talks recently centred on forgiveness, reconciliation, and healing. Many conversions and healings have taken place through Joseph's ministry. Joseph will be in Molesey to give a talk and share His healing ministry with us on Saturday 15th February at 11am in St Barnabas Church hall, spaces are limited so advance notice is required please.

A small donation would be appreciated on the day to help pay towards Joseph's transportation and accommodation.
